

Molecular Diagnostics for Infectious Diseases Workshop

April 29 – May 2, 2009

InterContinental Sydney Australia

Centre for Infectious Disease and Microbiology at Westmead Hospital invites clinicians, scientists, laboratory managers and public health practitioners to their annual Workshop "Molecular Diagnostics for Infectious Diseases". Program includes lectures and lab demonstrations and covers:

- * Infectious disease challenges in Asia and Pacific
- * Molecular diagnostics for infectious disease management and surveillance
- * Laboratory management in the era of genomic microbiology

Speakers include:

Prof Dominic Dwyer, Westmead Hospital, Sydney
Prof Lyn Gilbert, Westmead Hospital, Sydney
Prof Margaret Ip, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Prof Jonathan Iredell, Westmead Hospital, Sydney
Prof Raymond Lin, National University Hospital, Singapore
Prof Peter McMinn, University of Sydney
Prof Theo Sloots, Royal Children's Hospital, Brisbane
Prof Ming Wang, University of Sydney
Prof Roger Wilson, Prince of Wales Hospital, Sydney

Organising Committee:

Sharon Chen, CIDM
Jonathan Iredell, CIDM
Greg James, CIDM
Peter Jelfs, CIDM
Neisha Jeoffreys, CIDM
Fanrong Kong, CIDM
Lou Orszulak, CIDM
Vitali Sintchenko, CIDM
Qinning Wang, CIDM

For more information or to register your interest, contact:
Lou\_Orszulak@swahs.health.nsw.gov.au

The University of Sydney
Australia

